BAFN: A great experience!

I am writing to let those who are interested in adopting an animal, how great my experience has been with BAFN. I just took in a dog to foster from Brooklyn Animal Foster Network yesterday, who I also hope to adopt. His shelter name is "Duke" -- and he is a doll.

So far, I've had a great experience with Laurie and everyone at BAFN-- and I encourage anyone who is interested adopting -- or on the fence about adopting -- to go through them. They have been really wonderful -- and its been so very easy.

After checking me out through my application, they brought the dog to me -- with crate and all. I found going on petfinder.org overwhelming and was reluctant to go to just any shelter, but of course, would have. But instead, BAFN made the process on my end a very convenient one!

AND, not to mention that the dog (puppy -- he's 6 mos.) is a beautiful, wonderfully behaved dog. He is already housetrained, and is so cuddly, socializes well with other dogs, walks great on a leash, and is just a true treat to have in my home!

Laurie -- from BAFN -- has also been so attentive to my phonecalls, questions, emails -- before I took in the dog and since. And she has taken the initiative to check in with me several times to see how everything is going. I really appreciate the support, considering the responsibility making the decision to foster. You don't feel alone in it -- you feel like there are people who are appreciative, and are there to guide you.

So, thank you BAFN!
